

THE JINNAH ANTHOLOGY

4th Edition

Authored, Compiled and Edited by Liaquat H. Merchant and Professor Sharif al Mujahid

A unique book The Jinnah Anthology rated as the best reference book on Jinnah will now be available for sale at all leading book stores across Pakistan and also online. It is an ideal book for Pakistanis including those resident abroad as it provides a link with Pakistan, the reasons behind its creation and why the idea of Pakistan will never die. The Jinnah Anthology compiled and edited by Liaquat Merchant and Prof Sharif al Mujahid is an ideal book for Historians, Scholars, Students and the casual reader. It is a Collectors item and the 4th edition is the last in this series which started in 1999 with all earlier editions sold off. This book is intended primarily to be a source of inspiration for the general reader. It aims to re-emphasize Jinnah's vision and principles relating to democracy, justice, equality, integrity, honesty, supremacy of the rule of law and rights of women and minorities, to document the Quaid's life, his work and achievements. The collection of previously published and new articles by well-known academics, historians and analysts along with the collection of various speeches delivered by Jinnah between 1911 and 1947 make it an invaluable source of information for academics, researchers, historians, undergraduate and graduate students alike. The book is divided into fourteen sections, including essays, excerpts from books on the freedom movement, speeches, quotes, articles, personal recollections, tributes, historical documents and an invaluable chapter of Quotes from the Quaid. The speeches are unavailable in any other publications and therefore prove to be invaluable. The book has an attractive layout, and a wide variety of photographs.
